EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Marriage of Miss Cain and Mr. Fronging This Morning.

Bransom-White Wedding Last Night—Luncheon and Bridge Parties—Personals.

A pretty wedding took place this morning at 7:30 o'clock at the Divinity Hall Chapel, in the Catholic University grounds, when Miss Mary Mildred Cain became the bride of Mr. Henry Bernhardt Fronging of Columbus, Ohio. The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a lingerie gown of embroidered batiste, organdie and lace. Her tulle veil was held with a wreath of lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Master Henry Edward Cain, the bride's youngest brother, attended her as ring bearer, and the ushers were Mr. J. Harvey Cain and Mr. J. Fendall Cain, Jr., brothers of the bride, and Mr. Bernard J. Cain, her uncle. Rev. Dr. Othmar F. Knapp, C. P. S., of the Catholic University, assisted by Rev. Charles B. Schantz of St. Charles College, performed the ceremony. A number of the nuptial mass which followed, with Mr. J. Fendall Cain, Jr., and Master Henry Edward Cain as servers. A musical program was given during the ceremony, consisting of violin selections and a vocal solo by Miss Erma Cain, the bride's sister. A number of sisters and clergy were present.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate family followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fendall Cain, the Pines, in the Catholic University grounds. The bridegroom is a graduate of Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, where he is at present a member of the faculty. After a brief sojourn at the seashore, Mr. and Mrs. Fronging will spend the next six weeks in Dubuque, Iowa, and after August 15 will make their future home in Columbus, Ohio.
